

Mazz Swift (violin)

At the age of 12, violinist and singer Mazz Swift made her solo performance debut at Alice Tully Hall in New York City, performing alongside members of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra. She later attended the Juilliard School of Music and studied with Stephen Clapp. Since leaving in her third year to pursue a more organic approach to music making, she has performed and recorded with artists of all kinds including Whitney Houston, Kanye West, Vernon Reid and DJ Logic (The Yohimbe Bros.), Burnt Sugar and Dee Snider of Twisted Sister. She is NYC-based, where she splits her time between a solo project (MazzMuse), a career as a freelance performing and recording artist and the demanding touring schedule of her folk based band Brazz Tree.
